

WELCOME TO OUR MARCH NEWSLETTER!

Property Management and Rental Company Dipos d.o.o. Belgrade has been a home away from home to diplomatic representatives from different parts of the world for more than 60 years now. At the same time, it has been representing the highest values of our country to the international and business community we cooperate with.

In our March newsletter, we bring you the news of the visit of H. E. Bassel Salah, the Ambassador of the Arab Republic of Egypt to our Company. We proudly share with you the results of our survey on client satisfaction conducted on annual basis, we talk about full commitment to the development of close neighborly relations between Bulgaria and Serbia and, as usually, we bring you a story on a Serbian diplomat, this time Milovan Milovanovic.

SERBIAN DIPLOMATS

MILOVAN MILOVANOVIC

Milovan Milovanovic Balacko was the greatest Serbian diplomat at the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century, a Serbian politician and theorist of the state and law. At the dawn of the 20th century, when the Balkan states were in the phase of final liberation from the centuries of Ottoman rule, Milovanovic, at the head of Serbian diplomacy, was a key factor in the creation of the Balkan Alliance. He concluded an alliance with Bulgaria which enabled the creation of the Balkan Alliance against the Ottoman Empire.

He participated in drafting the Constitution of Serbia from 1888. As one of the most prominent leaders of the People's Radical Party and the Prime Minister of the Royal Government, he was the Minister of Economy and Finance and the Ambassador of Serbia to Rome.
