

WELCOME TO OUR NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER!

On the occasion of 60 years of business, our Company published a special, ceremonial and first edition of the magazine "Dipos" in which it presented not only its long history but also its sights, its vision and through numerous interviews with diplomats whose embassies it has cooperated with for more than half a century once again unequivocally confirmed that it is a true home for the whole world.

We hosted the ambassador of the French Republic, H.E. Mr. Pierre Koshar, with his associates, representatives of the French Cultural Center and the French School in Belgrade, our long-term tenant, partner, and friend.

The Ambassador of Brazil in Serbia, José Mauro Couto, organized a viewing of the World Cup soccer match between Serbia and Brazil in his residence, which was attended by the director of our Society, Đoko Krivokapić and his deputy, Ivana Milosavljević.

For professional development, our employees had the opportunity to attend a seminar on "Business protocol and etiquette with the basics of event organization" organized by the MNG Center.

In this edition, we will introduce you to the life and work of Andre Nikolić, a Serbian lawyer, writer, literary historian, and politician. During his rich career, he was Minister of Education, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Minister of Justice, and State Counselor.
