

WELCOME TO OUR OCTOBER NEWSLETTER!

Last month, together with the Post Office of Serbia, we symbolically marked our jubilee, 60th anniversary, in a different way - by creating a personalized postage stamp with the motif of the Diplomatic Colony on Dedinje. The first framed copy of the issued stamp was ceremoniously handed over by the Director of our Company, Djoko Krivokapic, to the workers with the longest engagement in our company.

We hosted the ambassador of the State of Israel in Belgrade, H.E. Mr. Jahel Vilan, and the first secretary of the Embassy, Mrs. Dana Lifsic.

The Embassy of the Kingdom of Morocco in the Republic of Serbia has expressed its desire to establish business cooperation with our Company. On that occasion, a meeting was held with the delegation of the Embassy, headed by H.E. Mr. Mohamed Amin Belhaj.

A working meeting was held in our premises with long-term tenants and friends, representatives of the International School in Belgrade. Principal, Andrew Derry and Richard Robinson, director of the British-Serbian Chamber of Commerce and member of the school's finance committee, headed the delegation.

In this edition, we will introduce you to the life and work of Milan Pirocanac. He was the head of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, judge of the Court of Cassation, Prime Minister, and Minister of Justice. He is considered one of the most important Serbian intellectuals in the second half of the 19th century, remembered as the president of the first progressive government, gentleman and intellectual, extraordinary judge, and lawyer.

DIPOS, IN COOPERATION WITH THE POST OFFICE OF SERBIA, SYMBOLICALLY MARKED ITS JUBILEE

In addition to the series of activities which we carried out during the year, by creating a personalized postage stamp with the motif of the Diplomatic Colony on Dedinje, we also marked 60 years of operation of DIPOS and 60 years since the construction of the Diplomatic Colony on Dedinje in another way, which was symbolically immortalized on this philatelic edition of the personalized stamp of JP Post of Serbia.

THE MOST VALUABLE RESOURCE OF DIPOS IS ITS EMPLOYEES

Katarina Anastasovski, Brankica Pajic, and Miroslav Carevic spent their entire working life in our Company, which is best evidenced by their 40 years of devoted work and dedication to DIPOS.

On this occasion, the director of our Company, Djoko Krivokapic, ceremoniously presented the workers with the longest tenure with a special gift - a framed first copy of the postage stamp issued on the occasion of the 60th anniversary of the operation of DIPOS and the 60th anniversary of the construction of the Diplomatic Colony in Dedinje, which our Company celebrates this year.
